You are Invited to Celebrate with the Collier County Public Library!

Saturday, September 16, 1-3 p.m.
HEADQUARTERS LIBRARY
2385 Orange Blossom Drive, Naples

This is a year of milestones for our Library!

- 85 years ago, in 1932, our origins started with the first lending library initiated by the Naples Woman’s Club.
- In 1957, 60 years ago, The Friends of the Library petitioned Collier County for approval and helped create the Collier County Free Public Library.
- Today, we have ten (10) library locations in Collier County with the Headquarters Regional Library on Orange Blossom Drive celebrating 15 years of service.
- The Friends of the Library of Collier County will provide cake and refreshments. There will be ukulele music and fun in the courtyard. The Naples Asian Professional Association (NAPA) will have a dance performance.

All Collier County Library System locations will close on Monday, September 4 in observation of Labor Day
September is National Library Card Sign-up Month!

Look for our new Library Card logo to see what special events we have planned for September!

Also during September, community businesses are partnering with the Library to make the “Smartest Card in Your Wallet” even more valuable! With the “Passport to Savings” event, you will receive special offers from participating businesses just by showing them your Library card!

Visit collierlibrary.org, for more details.

CLASSICAL MASTERS: SERIES 2 OF 4 WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART: OUTTER LIMITS OF GENIUS
Wednesday, September 6, 3 p.m.
Presenter: Steve Mutart
What does a five year old do with the rest of his life after mastering violin and piano? Well, compose more wonderful music than just about any person in this universe by the time of his too early death at 35. 41 symphonies, 27 piano concertos, five violin concertos by age 18, many operas, countless small concert pieces, hundreds of live performances for royalty throughout Europe. But the darling of Europe dies penniless and joins the paupers in their graves. Today he is revered by millions and the hero to the giants that followed. Seating is available on first-come, first-served basis. Doors will open 30 minutes before presentation. No registration needed. (90 minutes)

PIioneer setTlements in ThE 10,000 Islands
Thursday, September 21, 10 a.m.
Presenter: David Southall
Once the domain of the powerful Calusa tribe, the 10,000 Islands was mostly uninhabited for over a century after the Spanish Colonial Government left Florida in 1763. The area’s isolation and lack of population exactly suited the rugged loners and Civil War veterans who sought refuge on the elevated sites abandoned by their Native American predecessors. Self-sufficient and trusting no “outsider” these folks developed a unique Island culture that could resist everything except the wrath of Mother Nature. (90 minutes)
